

(Provisional Title) Narashino City Declaration of protecting ourselves and important people from abuse treatment, violence, bullying, and discrimination (Preliminary draft)

For everyone, human rights which are fundamental inalienable right, shall be respected, and the right to life like oneself is guaranteed without relation to race, nationality, persuasion, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, occupation, origins, background, age, illness, handicap, and property. We, Citizens of Narashino, hereby declare that by acknowledging each other's diversity, we have the strong will not to tolerate abuse treatment, violence, bullying and discrimination, and pledge to build a mutually supportive community for ourselves.

I We, Citizens of Narashino, respect the right to live like ourselves as diverse beings from birth.

I We, Citizens of Narashino, do not exclude anyone in any manner which is physical, mental, economic and so on, and continue to respect each other.

I We, Citizens of Narashino cooperate with each other in every place such as home, school, workplace and community, and eradicate abuse treatment, violence, bullying, and discrimination.